

The Women in Military Service for America Memorial Foundation

WIMSA maintains and operates the Memorial Education Center, located in Washington, DC. The Foundation manages a world-class archive of documents artifacts and memorabilia related to women who have served in defense of our nation.

In addition, a primary mission of the Foundation and a major continuing effort is that of identifying and registering the more than two million women who have served or are serving in all branches of the United States Armed Forces. Some 250,000 women, about 13 percent of these eligible, have registered or been registered by family or friends.
